Someday I might get a Civic hb, and I was wondering which engine would be the best to swap in terms of ease and I guess cheap power. When I do this, it'll be something new to me. That's why I don't want anything extreme. I've been looking into the various swaps with different engines and stuff but I mean there's so many, and me not knowing much, I have no clue what to look at or for. I was ...
