FABLEHAVEN is a preserve that protects magical creatures. While there are some that are 'good' there are also some that would mean them harm. This is never so important as during Midsummer Eve, a night when the creatures venture closer to the house and will try any means necessary to gain entry into the protected house in order to have their way with the occupants. Childish curiosity and then disregard to their grandfather's authority finally lead them to put their loved ones in danger ...

If she doesn't have it already the Caretakers guide to Fablehaven is a great option. The book covers a lot of the lore and characters of the series recapping, expanding, and condensing it into one book including lots of nice pictures. Your other two options would be to try and get a custom T-shirt sold by another fan of the series, which could probably found online but I have never tried it ...
