Edward Keyway's pirate ship and Jacob Frye's street gang are both named for members of the crow family, the Jackdaw and the Rooks. In AC Syndicate, the name Frye comes from the Old English meaning free, as in free-born. This is in keeping with the recurring theme of freedom throughout the series. Evie's name is of course a diminutive of the name Eve, from the Hebrew meaning life or to ...

I came across the names of African American comedy team Moss and Fry (i.e., Arthur G. Moss and Edward Frye), a.k.a. "A Couple of Blackbirds" in the terrific book The Palace by Marion Spitzer. And ya know what? I'm gonna do a bait and switch. Comedy historian Anthony Balducci has already written the definitive blogpost about this team...
