Obsessed is a 2005 thriller novel by Christian author Ted Dekker. Plot summary. Obsessed tells a story of Stephen Friedman—a successful realtor, a Jewish immigrant, and an orphan who had tried to find out who his parents were for a long time and at last gave up. An unexpected letter from a friend and a newspaper article offer help: Stephen discovers that his mother was Rachel Spritzer, a ...

Ted Dekker writes wonderful books! I listened the whole way through and was interested in this story. However, I had a hard time with it only because his other books (Three and the Red/White/Black trilogy) were so much better. He has a great life theme that I really enjoy. 1 person found this helpful

(this review is for the first half of the book, specifically Thr3e) While it was a page turner, and I really enjoyed this book, especially as my first Ted Dekker novel, I am a little tired of the specific twist ending that this one featured. I've just seen it too many times recently as a "clever" way out of this type of thriller.
