But, c'mon, it's Grace Livingston Hill, so it is also a romance, of course. It's set in the 1930s or 1940s. It starts with a young man getting off the train in a suburb of Philadelphia, who is late for a dinner engagement and cuts across the tracks to save time. A young woman comes up behind him and asks for his help, since he looks like a gentleman. She has no hat or gloves--scandalous at the ...
